Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Board, Governance and Leadership Workshop

* indicates a required field

Arts South Australia is providing up to 30 South Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander individuals working in or actively engaging with the arts and culture sector to participate in a two day in person Board, Governance and Leadership Workshop. The Workshop will be facilitated by Institute of Community Directors Australia (ICDA) to teach governance skills and knowledge to support First Nations arts leaders.

Arts South Australia is excited to offer this Workshop to increase the governance skills and knowledge of South Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people interested in becoming a member of an arts organisation board or management committee. Through tailored governance training we aim to strengthen and grow the voice and influence of First Nations people across the South Australian arts and culture sector.

Arts South Australia strongly recommends that applicants read the Guidelines before applying. Please find a copy of the Board, Governance and Leadership Workshop Guidelines here.
